LOCAL BREVITIES.

May Day Sunday.

The apple trees are in bloom.

The picnic season will soon be here.

We must have a north-bound train in the evening.

County Court meets in regular session next Monday.

For frequent and heavy rains the spring of 1904 is a record breaker.

Closing exercises of the Pilot Knob public school next Friday evening.

The inclement weather has rather retarded progress on the new Baptist church.

Sylvester Kitchell, pension claim attorney, Annapolis, has a card in the REGISTER.

The county board of equalization was in session the first three days of the week.

Circuit Clerk Hawkins expects to remove his family to Ironton in the very near future.

Primary election three weeks from next Saturday. The boys are moving around, too.

The Arkansas strawberry is on the market. Shipments will be heavy in a few days.

The World's Fair opens next Saturday. The attendance from the Valley will be large.

BORN—To Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gross, Tuesday, April 26th, 1904, a girl. All are doing well.

Lost—A black ice wool shawl. Finder will please return it to this office, and receive reward.

The proceedings of the late meeting of the Democratic Central Committee are published this week.

Make arrangements for accommodations for the Fair. $1 a day and two meals. Apply to J. N. Bishop.

Hon. Ed. Robb was here last Thursday looking over the political situation. He left that evening for Piedmont.

Three troops—about two hundred and forty men—are expected at the rifle range Thursday from Jefferson Barracks.

We had another very heavy rain Sunday morning. The water came down in torrents for hours and the creeks and branches were booming.

"Escalante" furnishes our readers an interesting letter from St. Louis this week. We are promised another letter next week, telling of the opening of the big show. We trust our correspondent will not disappoint us.

The Summer School commences work next Monday. The attendance promises to be large and all indications are for a most successful term.

It is said that the great number of passenger trains now on the road will necessitate sending many of the freight trains around on the Illinois side.

Chas. Schleuter was fined $5 and costs in Squire Fairchild's court Monday morning for assaulting Richard Goulding on the street Saturday night.

BORN—To Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Adolph, Thursday, April 21, 1904, a boy. This is No. 3, and Henry thinks he's about the most important man in town.

FOR SALE—My one-third interest in 20 town lots and 78 acres in Bismarck. A splendid investment. Address Mrs. M. J. Chamberlin, box 94, Ironton, Mo.

Our splendid train service was of short duration. Will we have to have another round with the company before we can again have what we are entitled to?

MARRIED—At the residence of the bride's parents in Annapolis, Mo., Sunday, April 17, 1904, Lewis Brewer and Miss Maud Slusher, S. Kitchell, J. P., officiating.

Chas. Newman was here Sunday. He was on his way to Dallas, Texas, where he will spend some time advertising the Uneda Biscuit in the Lone Star State.

The Middlebrook, Graniteville & Bellevue Railroad last week bought two hundred tons of steel from the Frisco railroad. Work will commence on the new road at once.

A consignment of ready-to-wear hats just received in the millinery department of the Lopez Store Company. They are exquisite, as pretty as can be. Call and see them.

Hon. M. R. Smith, of Farmington, candidate for Congress, was in Ironton Monday. He was on his way to Reynolds county, where he is this week making a canvass of the county.

The accommodation train that has been running to Bismarck ever since that train was taken from Arcadia, now only runs as far south as De Soto. The change was made Sunday.

Frank Harris, Marion Harris, Siley Richmond and Aaron Graves were brought here from St. Louis Sunday, to serve thirty days in jail for selling whiskey without paying government tax.

The candidates for Representative, Prosecuting Attorney and Assessor appear to be the only ones that have to do any hustling at this primary. The others are having an easy time of it.

BORN—To Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Jones, Pilot Knob, Mo., Monday, April 26th, 1904, a girl. The REGISTER tenders congratulations and is glad to announce that mother and child are doing nicely.

Fred Curtis and wife, after spending several days here with Mr. Curtis' parents, left last week for East St. Louis, where they will remain a few days before returning home to Lexington, Mo.

It is said that they are catching fine strings of bass and other fish at Iron Mountain these days. The east side of the dam was washed away by the high waters of a month ago. The fishing is now above the dam.

Ed. Matthews and Jas. Barger, of Bismarck, were in our town Monday morning. We understand they were looking at the Andy Bean house with a view to renting it for occupancy by a sister of Mr. Matthews.—Ironville Gazette.

Ironton again has a "bucket shop" and quotations from the market are received every few minutes. A gentleman by the name of H. Mansfield, representing the Donovan Commission Company, St. Louis, is in charge.

The REGISTER had a very pleasant call Monday from Mr. Polite Elvins, the young attorney from Elvins, Mo. Mr. Elvins is a candidate for the Republican nomination for Congress in this district, and thinks he will be a winner.

Chas. L. Fox visited home folk in Ironton last Sunday. Charlie is now agent for the Iron Mountain railroad at Bald Knob, Arkansas—a responsible and lucrative position. His many friends here are glad to know that he is prospering.

When we had our sleet Wednesday of last week the snow was falling fast and furious just north of us, and all south-bound cars on the road were covered with the "beautiful." Winter seems to have no regard for spring at all this year of 1904.

All candidates who want to get their names on the primary election ticket will have to pay their assessment to the County Central Committee before May 1st. That means the entries close next Saturday. Hurry up, boys, there are only a few days left.

Mr. E. M. Dearing, of Potosi, a brother of Judge Dearing, was here Monday. He conveys the pleasing information that the Judge is greatly improved in health, and hopes to be able to journey to his home in Hillsboro some time this week.

Visit the special display of High Class Woollens in 1-4 yard lengths at our store from April 25th to 30th. These samples come from the widely known and popular tailoring house of Edward E. Strauss & Co., Chicago. If you need anything in the tailoring line you will find this a splendid opportunity to make selection of a nobby suit for a small amount of money. Don't fail to call.

Yours, truly,
LOPEZ STORE CO.

We understand that Wm. Hall, who has been a passenger conductor on the Iron Mountain for many years, is thinking of becoming a candidate for Railroad Commissioner. Mr. Hall is a loyal Democrat and good man, and would unquestionably have a strong following in this part of the State.

George Sutherland, of Marble Creek, Iron County, was in Centreville a short while to-day. Mr. Sutherland lived in this county some fifteen years ago, when he moved to Iron County. He has one of the best farms in Iron County and has it well stocked with cattle and hogs.—Reynolds County Outlook.

One of the most attractive and instructive exhibits at the World's Fair will be the Philippine Exhibit. A school of Philippine children will be in constant operation on the reservation. Every Missouri teacher and child should spend a few hours with these people in the extreme west end of the exposition grounds.

Work on the electric railway is progressing at a good rate. The trolley wires are in place from De Lassus to the powerhouse north of Farmington. It is expected that the road will be in operation by June 15th or before, and completed to Flat River by December 31st. Mr. Thurlby, the manager, is a pusher.—Farmington Times.

After all, there will be very little of what was designated as "live school work" at the St. Louis exposition. Just why it was not arranged after so much promise will never be known. There will be more to instruct and interest in the educational building than can be studied in a brief visit. Let that be the Mecca of all teachers and school officers.

Mr. W. A. Russell is greatly improving his property this spring. He has a force of men employed in building a park in front of his beautiful home in this city. In the park will be a fish pond which will add greatly to its magnificence. When the park is completed this will be one of the most beautiful and picturesque homes in Southeast Missouri.—Potosi Independent.

The attorneys met in the court room Monday morning and elected Judge Dinning to preside over Circuit Court in the absence of Judge Dearing, who is sick and unable to attend. A few minor matters were disposed of Monday and Tuesday and then court adjourned until the next regular term in October, all cases being continued until then.

In this issue of the REGISTER appears the announcement of James G. Austin, who is a candidate for Assessor. Mr. Austin has been a resident of the county all his life and has a pretty general acquaintance with our people. He asks the voters to give him kindly consideration at the primary election, and assures them that if he should be nominated and elected he will use his best endeavors to make a faithful and competent official.

John H. Smith, who twenty years ago was publishing the Herald in Ironton, was visiting old friends in the Valley this week. John says he has had a good many ups and downs the last score of years, but that he is getting along very well just now. He has charge of the Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Company's business in Tennessee and Alabama, with headquarters at Nashville. W. J. Russell, of Bellevue, this county, is working under him at Birmingham, Alabama.

MARRIED—At the home of the bride, April 21, 1904, at 2 o'clock p. m., Mr. Joe Warren and Miss Fannie Orr, Elder Chas. H. Polk officiating. The groom was dressed in black and the bride in white. T. D. Bone was groomsmen and Miss Eusebia Polk bridesmaid. After the ceremony was performed all retired to the dining room, where a sumptuous feast was awaiting them, to which all did ample justice. May they live a life of happiness is the wish of the writer.

A cyclone swept over a portion of the old Twoomey farm, now owned by J. A. Smith, on Marble Creek, about six miles south of Ironton, Monday morning at five o'clock. Fences about the garden and barn were blown down; eight apple trees—some of them of forty years' growth—were uprooted, and two cedar trees were twisted off about eight feet from the ground. A door in the dwelling was blown open and the building shook but no damage resulted. The storm lasted only two minutes and covered but five acres of ground. The cyclone was not felt anywhere else in the locality.

The members of the Baptist Ladies' Aid Society desire to announce to their friends in Arcadia Valley, that a bazaar will be given at the Academy of Music, May 12, 1904, Thursday afternoon and evening. While this is given for the benefit of the new church building fund, yet the music, flowers and decorations, the delicious cake, ice cream and strawberries to be served, and the many useful and well made articles, will fully compensate the public for its attendance and expenditure of money. The Ladies' Home Journal booth has been received from Philadelphia, and special subscriptions will be made for the Ironton that day. Again the ladies extend a cordial invitation to all to attend.

M. C. Hays, local agent for the Pacific Express Company, was a troubled man this morning. A big package containing dry goods was left at the office of No. 5 last night, with apparently no address. There were a lot of pot hooks on one side, but although the agent looked at the marks almost every possible way, he could not make out the destination. Finally, stuck down in one corner, the desired information was found. The package was sent by a Turk in Ironton, who deals in dry goods and notions, wholesale, to a competitor in Ellington, who sells them retail. The entire address had been put on in Turkish characters, while the English address and other marks were left to care for themselves in a hidden spot on the wrapper.—Polar Bear Republican.

A new time card went into effect Sunday. One new passenger train each way is put on the road and there are several changes in the time of the old ones. Our service now is No. 10 north at 5:05 a. m., and No. 8 north at 9:40 a. m. Our south-bound trains are No. 7 at 8:15 a. m., No. 1 at 5:35 p. m., and No. 9 at 12:25 midnight. No. 3, south-bound, stops at Arcadia as heretofore. This leaves us with but two trains north a day, both in the morning about four hours apart. That means if you do not get out of here at 9:40 in the morning, there is no opportunity to get north again until the following morning at 5:05. There are trains going north, No. 4 at 4:22 p. m., and No. 20 at 6:02 p. m., but they do not stop here. The company should give us one of these trains. Public convenience and comfort demands it. There are now fourteen trains on the road daily—seven each way. Surely we are not unreasonable in asking that three of the north-bound trains stop at this station. We must have the service, and let us make no delay in asking for it.

The public schools of Ironton closed last Friday with an entertainment at the Academy of Music in the evening. A fine audience greeted the little folk and the programme was creditable to all. Orations, essays, drills, songs, and choruses, and instrumental music, excellently rendered, gave pleasure to the auditors and reflected no little credit on the pupils and those to whose charge they had been committed for the past year. An address of no ordinary merit, entitled, "The Boy Absalom—is He Safe?" by the principal, Prof. Daugherty, was received with applause and attentively heard. It appealed to the responsibility of the parent and set out in terse, forcible terms the duty that God and society demanded of them. I know of no more cogent reasoner than Mr. Daugherty, nor one of greater breadth of mind or kindness of heart. He is withal an excellent educator and a fine disciplinarian. His future success lies with himself, and his natural endowments are ample. The school results here testify to his merits and those of his competent corps of assistants.

The Missouri World's Fair Commission has created the Department of Women's Work and has reserved space therefor in the Varied Industries and in the Manufactures' Building. This space will be artistically installed and fitted up so as to show to the best advantage the handiwork of Missouri women. B. H. Bonfoey, who is in charge of the department, is desirous of securing the very finest display of fancy needlework, decorative china, burnt wood and other articles, the work of Missouri women. There will be no charge to the exhibit for entering or installing the exhibits as the Commission will pay all such expenses. Exhibitors will have the privilege of offering any article for sale, to be delivered after the Exposition closes. The Missouri Commission will not carry any insurance on the articles on exhibition, but favorable terms will be secured by Mr. Bonfoey by which exhibitors who desire may insure their goods with responsible companies. All packages containing exhibits must be sent by express, charges prepaid at point of shipment, addressed to B. H. Bonfoey, Missouri World's Fair Commission, Manufactures' Building, St. Louis, Mo., with the name and address of the exhibitor and a list of the articles, with their appropriate name, marked on each package. As the time for the installation of this department is very short, it is asked that any article that a Missouri woman wishes to enter in this department should be sent so as to reach Mr. Bonfoey about May 1st. Do not ship so early as to arrive before that date. The Commission reserves the right to reject any article submitted that is not deemed worthy to be shown in this department. Further information may be obtained by addressing B. H. Bonfoey, Chairman Woman's Department, Missouri World's Fair Commission, St. Louis.

Everybody from all over the country—that is, nearly everybody—was in Ironton last Saturday, and all were happy. They came afoot, on horseback, in wagons and by rail to the Lopez Store Company's opening, and none were disappointed. The programme advertised for the day—the music, the souvenirs, the millinery, the general display—was strictly carried out. The store was in gala attire and its pleasing appearance gave a genial welcome to the public. And the public was there in force—don't you doubt it. The main bazaar, the millinery rooms, the up-stairs and the downstairs, were overflowing with light, life and feminine beauty. When, as it were, time was called at 1 p. m. the musicians had to edge their way in to their place—no easy matter to those of generous avoirdupois—through the throng that had assembled as if by magic conjuration. Two of Ironton's belles, whose bright faces and fairy-like tread are in themselves the essence of sweet harmony to the eye, delighted the ear with artistic piano selections, and 'tween whiles the Budweisers essayed to charm with attempts at concertos of sweet sounds, with harp, pipe, hackbut, psalter, etc. And all the time ladies were examining embroidery ies and other things a man is not expected to understand or designate, trying on hats, comparing babies, matching ribbons, etc., while the coarser element discussed and purchased everything from a dollar's worth (20 pounds) of granulated sugar to a plug of Star tobacco. All the afternoon the commingling of rush, music, and business went on, and when the shades of evening gathered they fell gratefully upon the ample force of clerks and salesmen whose enthusiasm even the fatigues of the day had not overcome. The whole affair was admirably managed and reflects credit upon the town no less than the company. The windows reminded one of the displays given on Broadway of the World's Fair City, and the Millinery Department, now in charge of Miss Kate Reel, reflected credit upon her supervision, as they evidenced the taste and care and financial ability which had furnished them forth. I confidently predict that the recent change of name of the establishment will effect no change in its prosperity except to push it onward and upward in its successful career. It is needless for me to say that, come the greatest need of fortune to it, that need will not exceed my wishes in its shoals.

Patrons of Ironton Public School.

As we have had several requests for lower work than we intended to give in the Summer School, we have just made arrangements with Mr. Allison Tims to conduct this part of our work. Patrons, your boy and your girl need this work. Two months will help them greatly when they are promoted next fall. We want your boys and girls with us. We can help them. Rates and particulars may be had by addressing Mr. Tims.

BURFORD & DAUGHERTY.

Beauty and Strength

Are desirable. You are strong and vigorous, when your blood is pure. Many—many most—women fail to properly digest their food, and so become pale, sallow, thin and weak, while the brightness, freshness and beauty of the skin and complexion depart. Remedy this unpleasant evil, by eating nourishing food and taking a small dose of Herbine after each meal, to digest what you have eaten. 50c at Arcadia Valley Drug Co.

For bicycle repairs and repairing go to Albert.

CASTORIA.

Our stock of Star Brand shoes, all sizes, are No. 1 and price low. H. Barnhouse, south side of court house square.

WANTED—Colored boy to work around house. Address Howard Lindsay, 2651 Washington avenue, St. Louis.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident is narrated by John Oliver, of Philadelphia, as follows: "I was in an awful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite, growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters; to my great joy, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50c, guaranteed, at Arcadia Valley Drug Company.
